

Who's Protected

You can get information and file a complaint at CHRO if you think you have been illegally discriminated against. To understand what action may constitute illegal discrimination, consult the chart below.

Discrimination Is Illegal In...
Housing	Public Accommodations	Credit Transactions
On the basis of:
ancestry	color	learning disability
mental retardation	national origin	physical disability
religious creed	sex, including pregnancy	sexual orientation
The above are protected in all three categories, plus below as indicated:
lawful source of income mental disability use and/or training of a guide dog familial status (housing only) breast feeding (P.A. only)
IN...
services rendered to public, rentals and sales of public and private housing		loans, mortgages or any credit transactions
BY...
any establishment which caters or offers its services or facilities or goods to the general public	landlords, property sellers, real estate agents	any person or institution who regularly extends or arranges for the extension of credit