Sec. 43. - Annual budget process.

(a) Mayor's budget. No later than the second Monday in ~~March~~February, the mayor shall submit to the board of apportionment and taxation a proposed fiscal budget. Said fiscal budget shall consist of:

(1) A budget message outlining the financial policies of the city government and describing in connection therewith the important features of the budget plan;

(2) Estimates of revenue, presenting in parallel columns the itemized receipts collected in the last-completed fiscal year and receipts estimated to be collected in the current fiscal year and estimates of the receipts estimated to be collected in the ensuing fiscal year;

(3) Itemized estimates of expenditures presenting in parallel columns the actual expenditures for each department, office, agency or activity during the last fiscal year, the amount estimated to be expended in the current fiscal year and the amount estimated to be expended in the next fiscal year;

(4) As a separate report thereto, a budget of proposed capital projects for the ensuing fiscal year and for the four fiscal years thereafter. Estimates of the costs of such projects shall be submitted by each department, office or agency of the city government annually as directed by the mayor. The mayor shall recommend those capital projects to be undertaken during the ensuing fiscal year and the methods of financing the same.

(b) Board of apportionment and taxation. The board of apportionment and taxation, upon receipt of the proposed fiscal budget from the mayor, shall hold a public hearing on the proposed budget and thereafter review the budget for the purpose of making recommendations.

No later than the second Tuesday in ~~April~~March, the board of apportionment and taxation shall submit to the board of aldermen a proposed fiscal budget in the form prescribed in section (a) and make a recommendation as to the tax rate to be fixed for the ensuing fiscal year.

(c) Board of aldermen. The board of aldermen, upon receipt of the proposed fiscal budget from the board of apportionment and taxation, shall review the budget for the purpose of making recommendations. The board of aldermen may reduce or delete any item therein by a majority of members present and voting but it will require a vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting to increase the budget or to add any item thereto or increase any item therein.

Not later than the second Tuesday of ~~May~~April, the board of aldermen shall hold a public hearing on the proposed budget, prior to which said board of aldermen shall cause said estimate to be published in a daily newspaper of general circulation in said city at least once.

Not later than ~~May~~April 30, the board of aldermen shall adopt the budget for the ensuing fiscal year and fix the tax rate to be levied on property in the city in the ensuing year.

(d) Referendum. A public referendum on the budget must be held if the budget approved by the board of aldermen represents an increase in expenses of in excess of four percent (4%) relative to three percent (3%) or more in net taxes to be collected from the previous year's budget. The referendum vote shall be by machine ballot. The referendum shall be held not more than 14 ~~calendar~~5 days after approval by the board of aldermen. The referendum questions shall be presented on the ballot as follows.

(1) Shall the city portion of the budget, as recommended by the board of aldermen of (dollar amount) for the fiscal year (specify year) be adopted?

(2) Shall the board of education portion of the budget, as recommended by the board of aldermen, (of dollar amount) for the City of Ansonia for the fiscal year (specify year) be adopted?

The voters shall be given the option to vote either "Yes" or "No" and additionally the option to vote "too high" or "too low" on each of the budgets.

If both budgets are rejected, both budgets shall be resubmitted to the ballot after revisions by the board of aldermen. In case of further rejections, the aforesaid process, under this section, shall be repeated until said budgets are accepted, or until the increase in expenditure is expenditure's raised in net taxes to be collected is equal to or less than four percent~~fourthree percent~~ from the previous year's budget.

If only one (1) of the aforesaid portions of the budget passes, that budget shall be deemed to be approved. The budget question that is rejected shall be resubmitted to the ballot after revision by the board of aldermen, and resubmitted again after further rejection and further revision by the board of aldermen until said budget is accepted or until the increase in expenses is expenses "not taxes to be collected" is less than or equal to fourthree percent (43%) from the previous year's budget.

If the referendum vote rejects the budget, or either part thereof, the rejected portion shall be reconsidered by the board of aldermen within fourteenfive-calendar-day. In case of further rejection this process shall be continued using a no more than fourteen (14)five (5) calendar day period of reconsideration by the board of aldermen until the budget is adopted.

(e) Non-adoption of budget. If the budget is not adopted by June 20 the city shall send out real estate tax bills based on the same taxation figures and adjusted mill rate of the prior fiscal year, which would include adjustments for the new revenues, debt service, and legal obligations for the next fiscal year, which begins July 1. After the complete budget is passed the balance of the real estate plus personal property and motor vehicle tax bills shall be sent out based on any change brought about by referendum vote.

Sec. 130. Superintendent of fire alarm system.

~~Said board of aldermen shall appoint a superintendent of the fire alarm system of said city, who shall have the care of, maintenance, and extension of said fire alarm system, and shall perform any and all duties as may be prescribed by the board of aldermen or by the ordinances of said city, and who shall be paid such a compensation as may be fixed by said board of aldermen.~~

(Ord. of 6-18-15)

Sec. 129. Fire department generally.

- (a) There shall be a fire department for said city which shall consist of such numbers of fire companies as the board of aldermen shall from time to time establish or approve by its action; the officers of said department shall be a ~~chief engineer~~ fire chief, ~~who shall be designated as the fire chief~~, and ~~one assistant engineer from each of the city's companies, other than the one of which the chief shall be a member~~ three assistant chiefs from the Ansonia Fire Department.
- (b) The said officers shall rank in the following order: ~~Chief engineer, first assistant engineer and similarly through the second, third and fourth assistant engineers~~ Fire Chief, Deputy Fire Chief, First Assistant Chief and Second Assistant Chief.
